The School Camping Trip

Riley was feeling nervous about her school's camping trip. She was excited about using her new hiking boots and meeting new friends, but she couldn't sleep. She was thinking about her biggest fear.

Riley's dad was preparing breakfast when she came down the stairs the next morning with her tent and sleeping bag.

"They're going to laugh at me," she said. "They'll know I'm afraid of the dark!" Her dad handed her a climbing helmet. "Why don't you show them your special ability?" he asked.

Riley was always climbing. She started climbing trees when she was three, and she loved it. She was taking rock climbing classes and practiced at the climbing center twice a week. She could climb faster than anyone she knew!

Riley arrived at the campsite and set up her tent. She put on her hiking boots and took her helmet out of her bag. Some of the kids were canoeing and others were hiking. She went with the hiking group and found some rocks. They looked perfect for climbing.

She put on her helmet and ran to the rocks.

She was climbing so quickly. Everyone was impressed! They wanted her to show them how she did it.

Back at the campsite, Riley was so happy. When night came, she didn't even notice the dark.
