My name is Jeffrey Archer, but my friends call me Jeff. I'm a student and an athlete. I play basketball. It's ten o'clock at night and I'm busy doing my homework. You know, my life isn't easy. I usually get up at six-thirty and exercise for about half an hour. Then I have a light breakfast and walk to school. After school, I usually have basketball practice. I get home around seven thirty every night. I have dinner and do my homework. I only get a chance to hang out with my friends on weekends.

Teaching Tip

There are different strategies for putting students in pairs. Sometimes it's a good idea to pair a more able student with a less able student. For other activities it may be better to pair students of similar ability.

Additional Activity

Compile a number of sentences with frequency adverbs. (You can write them or use sentences from this unit.) Write the sentences on cards, one word for each card.

Divide students into groups with the same number of students as there are words in a sentence. Each student in a group takes one card from the sentence. Then students stand up and move around until they are standing in a line holding the cards in the correct order to make the sentence.

Language Builder

Explain that frequency adverbs generally go before the verb, except with the verb be. In sentences with be as the main verb, the frequency adverb goes after the verb. For example: He's usually late for school.

The adverb sometimes can also go at the beginning of the sentence: Sometimes I get up at 5:30 A.M.
