Language Builder

Point out that the word a means “one.” For this reason, we use a with singular words, not with plural words.

A complete explanation of the use of a/an will be presented in the grammar section on page 20.

Language Builder

Point out that the answer to the question What's this? usually begins It's a/an..., (NOT This is...). Answers to the questions What are these? or What are those? begin with They're...

Language Builder

Explain that that's is a contraction for that is. There is no contraction for this is.
