Reading and comprehension:

Career Day

My name is Mark Robbs. I'm 17 years old, and I'm a student at River Street High School. I want to be an architect, a chef, and a writer. It isn't easy to decide. I like to draw. I like to cook. I like to write, too. A lot of my friends have the same problem. What do we want to do?

Today is Career Day at my school. It's from noon to 3:00 P.M. On Career Day, different professionals come to our school. We talk to them about their jobs. I want to talk to Mr. Redford. He's an architect, and he is at school today. A famous chef from New York is here, too. And a successful writer is coming at 2:00 P.M. Career Day is a great idea!

What does mark Robbs do ?

he is a student.

A- Write (true) or (false):

1-Mark doesn't know what he wants to do . (true)

2- A successful writer is coming at 5:00 PM to the school. (false)

B- Choose the correct answer:

1- Career day is in the _____ .

(afternoon - morning - evening)

2- Mr. Redford is a _____ .

(architect- teacher - chef)

Write a paragraph about (your days) use the guide words below.

What do you do before the school?

What do you do usually after school?

When do you do your homework?

What days do you see your friends?

When do you watch TV?

usually -Get up - shower - always - home - evening -sometimes -every day
