Every year in Saudi Arabia, many people from all over the country and from abroad attend the Janadriyah national heritage and culture festival. The festival takes place in a village near Riyadh, and it is normally held between November and March when the heat is less extreme. The festival celebrates symbols of Saudi identity. There are camel races and horse races, displays of regional costumes, cuisines, and crafts such as carpet-weaving, and pottery. There are donkey rides, which are very popular with children. The festival lasts two weeks.
