VERY IMPORTANT

Language Builder

In American English, most school subjects do not have capital letters, for example: math, science, and history. Languages, such as French and Spanish, are an exception.

Challenging

Language Builder

Explain that the words challenging and difficult have slightly different meanings. Challenging is a more positive word. It means that you have to work hard, but that it is also exciting and interesting. Difficult simply means that something is hard to do.
