Omar: I'm looking for a vacation in an exotic and exciting place. I love to meet people and learn about new cultures.

Agent: How about India?

Omar: It's a bit too crowded, and I don't like Indian food.

Agent: Do you like nature? We have ecological tours in the Costa Rican rainforest. You can stay in a treetop resort. It's a unique jungle experience. You're going to love it.

Omar: I'm allergic to mosquitoes.

Agent: Why don't you go to the Alps? You will experience French, Swiss, Italian, and German cultures.

Omar: Actually, I want a place that isn't full of tourists. Somewhere off the beaten track.

What kind of place is this to visit?

Teaching Tip

When possible, have students do activities with their books closed. It helps to focus their attention if they are looking at you and what you are doing on the board rather than looking down at their books.

Additional Activity

Have students work in pairs to find words in this and previous units that have the /æ/ and /ɒ/ sounds. Then check lists as a class. Pairs get a point for each word that no other pair has.
