Time clauses

Time clauses are introduced by conjunctions such as: after, as soon as, before, until, when, while. We do not use future forms in a time clause; we use the present.

They'll probably go skiing when they are on vacation. (future)

They went skiing when they were on vacation. (past)

I'll go shopping while you cook dinner. (future)

He went shopping while his wife cooked dinner. (past)

We place a comma after the time clause when it begins the sentence.

As soon as we arrive, we're going straight to the hotel.

The present tense is used with time clauses to tell about something that will happen in the future.

I'll text you as soon as I hear from them.

I'll stop by after I finish work.

We can't leave until the bell rings.

As soon as we get to Hawaii,

We're heading to the beach.

When we get home, we'll give you a call.
