Reading passages:

Everyone wants a job that pays well. Some people stop school early because they want to start earning cash right away. Others spend years and years studying in school to get a better job. Which is best? Studies show that in most jobs, the higher your education, the higher your earning power. For example, in the United States, high school graduates can make about $30,400 a year. The people who do not finish high school average only $23,400 a year. Just having a document that says you finished high school means an extra $7,000! If you stay in school, you can make more money. A person who goes to college and gets a bachelor's degree can make an average of $52,200. With a master's degree, he or she can make about $62,000. And studies show that if a person gets a PhD, he or she can make $89,000 or more a year. Of course, people with different occupations have different salaries. Some average salaries for different professions in the United States such as Salesclerk $20,000, High School Teacher $44,000, Firefighter $48,000, Accountant $69,000, Dentist $159,000. We can learn an important lesson from this information. If you want to work and make more money, spend more time in school.

Towns in the Future

Cities in the Future

The cities in the future will be ideal like NEOM. Neom is a smart city in Saudi Arabia. The cities in the future will be livable and sustainable. The environment will not be polluted. We will use renewable energy such as solar energy or wind energy. Moreover, we will turn waste into energy so we can reduce the amount of trash. In the future, we'll use renewable fuel-powered public transports instead of private vehicles so there will be no traffic jams and conserve natural resources. Education will change to give more opportunities for self-learning. This means students can also study at home. People in the city must work only four days a week, four hours a day therefore they have more time for study, entertainment, and relaxation. This safe and friendly city is like a paradise. We can enjoy the highest quality of life there.

1. What is your favorite city?
2. Which world city do you think would be the best to live in?
3. How will cities in the future be different from those today?
4. Why do you like living in the city?

Relative clauses add information about a noun in the main clause.

Use the relative pronoun who or that for people.

Use the relative pronoun that or which for things and animals.

The man was talking to the tourists. He was friendly.

The man who/that was talking to the tourists was friendly. (relative clause)

The horse pulled the carriage. It was black.

The horse that/which pulled the carriage was black. (relative clause)

Relative clauses (also called adjective clauses) describe a noun that comes before (in the main clause).

Relative clauses begin with that, who, or which.

☺who is used with people (The woman who is crossing the street...);

☺which is used with things (The restaurant which opened...);

☺that can be used with people or things.

12 Form, Meaning and Function

Can/May/Could

We use the modal verbs can, may, and could to ask for permission.

Ask for Permission

Can I ask you a question?

May I speak to the manager?

Could I make a reservation?

Agree

Yes, of course.

Certainly/Sure.

All right.

Refuse

I'm sorry, but...

That's not possible...

I'm afraid...

FYI

May / Could are more formal

We use would like (to)... for polite requests:

I would like to book a room.

S + would like to + V..

Would like.

Where is the speaker in this situation.

(at a hotel, on the phone)

Would like means want but is considered more polite.

Point out that 'd' is the contraction of would

Can
May + S + V..?
Could

Would like is commonly used in both formal situations and in everyday conversation.

For example,

a waiter might say to a customer: What would you like to order?

A child might say to his mother: I'd like to have spaghetti for dinner.
