Field Trips For All Schools!

Science Museum

Many schools have already visited this museum, and they have had great adventures! There are talks about how the body works, and a room about the railroad. We haven't taken the railroad tour yet, but we have heard that it's exciting! Find out about more activities here.

How to get there:

The museum is close to the subway station, so it's best to take the subway.

Farm

Our class has just been on this trip to the farm, and we loved it! If you want to get away from the city, this is the perfect activity for you. It has already given many tours to schools, and has prepared many different activities!

How to get there:

You can find the farm close to the railroad station. Check the directions on the map.

Planetarium

The new planetarium has just opened, and it's the best place to learn about space and the universe. You need to book the tour and check in at reception when you arrive.

How to get there:

The planetarium is downtown. It is easy to get to by taxi, but there may be traffic.

Correct the false sentences.

- The museum has made this website about field trips. People who went on the field trips have made this website.
- Nobody has visited the science museum yet.
- It is a fact that the railroad tour is exciting.
- The farm has prepared many activities for schools.
- It is an opinion that the farm is close to the railroad station.
- The planetarium has been open for a long time.

Math: Using Basic Calculations

Imagine you have prepared a trip. You need to know how many people are going, how many days the trip lasts, and how much money to take, for this, you need math. Read to find out how to calculate in different situations.

Situation 1: Add

You have prepared a field trip to get away from the city. You have invited 9 kids and 3 teachers. Add 9 and 3 to make 12 passengers!

The taxi will take 20 minutes, the subway will take 10 minutes, and the walk from the platform to the terminal takes 5 minutes. Add these numbers together = 35 minutes!

Situation 2: Subtract

Two people have forgotten their passports, so they can't get through security. You have just lost 2 passengers. Subtract 2 from 12. You have 10 people!

You haven't arrived yet, and your friends have just asked how long is left. The plane journey is 3 hours, and you have been on the plane for 2 hours. Subtract 2 from 3. One hour left!

Situation 3: Multiply

You have just checked in at the hotel, and the teacher needs to pay. The room costs $20, and you have booked the hotel for 5 nights. Multiply 20 by 5. The total is $100.

Situation 4: Divide

You have just checked out of the hotel, and you go out to eat. Everyone eats the same food. The bill has come, and the total price is $50. You want to know how much each person needs to pay. Divide 50 by 10. You have worked out that everyone needs to pay $5.

1 To add is to calculate the total of two or more numbers together.

2 To subtract is _____

3 To multiply is _____

4 To divide is _____

5 If you have planned a trip with 15 people and you lose 3 travelers, you need to _____

6 If you have booked 3 nights at a hotel and each night costs $10, you need to _____

Unit Review

1 Play and answer.

Start / Finish

- Name three means of transportation.
- Tell your partner about an experience you have had.
- Tell your partner about a movie you have seen very recently.
- Write a description of a plan you have made.
- Make sentences using "check in" and "find out".
- Name four places related to travel.
- Tell your partner about an experience you haven't had yet.
- Write four actions that a plane can do.
- Answer: When James got to the hotel, what did he find out?
- Answer: What do you need to do when you arrive at the planetarium?
- Answer: What do you do when you arrive at and leave a hotel?

Return

- Tell your partner about a piece of homework you haven't done yet, but plan on doing.
- Add, subtract, multiply, and divide people and objects in your class.
- Tell your partner something you have done that you normally do later in the day.

Project

Create a model plane or train.

- Look at photographs of planes and trains.
- Choose one and draw it on a big piece of paper.
- Label the different parts of the plane or train.
- Decide what materials you need to make the model and collect them.
- Make a model using the drawing as a guide.
- Color and decorate your model.
- Present your model to the group.

Hey! It's me again, Kail! I live in an apartment with my mom, dad, and two big brothers. We live in a big city, and it's cool because there's so much fun stuff to do here. But we sometimes want to get away from city life and go on trips.

Guess what? Our city is super close to the beach and the mountains. We're really lucky! We've spent many weekends at the beach. We go swimming in the ocean and play in the sand. We just can't get enough of the beach!

We also like going to the mountains. My parents have bought a small house there. We keep some clothes and sports equipment there. So when we want to go, we just get in the car and off we go! We've been back from a trip to the mountains. We went hiking and fishing. It was great! Oh, and we love exploring new places in our country and in new countries. We've gone to a few places in the USA and Europe. We fly on to get there. I don't really like going to the airport because there's always a big line for security. And I always get scored when the plane takes off and lands. But I still think traveling, near or far, is the best way to live your life.
