Question 3: (True or False) Comprehension:

Use the information in the passage to answer the questions below.

From Questions (1) to (20), shade in the answer sheet the letter T if the statement is True or F if the statement is False, for every question.

Catherine, daughter of a small-time nobleman in medieval England, is hilarious. In a diary format she records her daily life, the outrages she suffers as a girl, and her often humorous assessment of things. She longs to be outside frolicking instead of inside sewing, and she chafes at her lessons in ladylike behavior. Birdy is the sort of girl who organizes a spitting contest and starts a mud fight. She makes a list of all the things girls cannot do, such as go on a crusade, be a horse trainer, laugh out loud, and “marry whom they will.” She battles with her father, who wants to marry her off to the highest bidder, no matter how repulsive. Many of her best sarcastic remarks are reserved for him, and she irritates him whenever possible. She has a lively sense of humor and a palpable love of life. Few fictional characters are so vivid and funny—do not miss this one.

Question 4: (Composition)

Read the story below. Then finish it with your own writing.

My sister woke me up early this morning. She ran into my room before the alarm clock went off.

“Look outside!” she yelled.

I got out of bed and looked out the window. All that I could see was white snow! There was a man shoveling the sidewalk in front of our house.

Mom came into the room. She brought us each a mug of hot chocolate.

“No school today!” she said. I was very happy. My sister was happy, too.

Mom left the room to find our snow clothes. She gave me my blue snowsuit. She also gave me a hat and mittens. “What are you going to do today with no school?” she asked.

Like a novel, a short story has characters, a setting and a conflict.

A good story has suspense, dialogue, description, sensory details and that its resolution ties up loose ends.

To write a story,

- Brainstorm characters, settings and conflicts.

Main character	setting	conflict
What does he / she look like? How old is the character? What does he/ she like to do?	Where does the story take place? When does the story take place? What sensory details help the reader imagine the setting?
