: Read the passage and answer the questions

The Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC) is a 57 -state organization based in Jeddah, Saudi Arabia, with members from all around the Islamic World. Since 1969, it has helped the Islamic community through fundraising events, donations, charities and humanitarian programmes . In addition, it supports Muslims in times of war or other emergencies such as natural disasters and helps those who are suffering from lack of medical care. Apart from that, the OIC educates people on how to deal .with health problems and other dangers

In the country of the Horn of Africa, such as Somalia and Kenya, more than 12 million people are affected by lack of food and water as well as serious illness. In 2012, the OIC decided to ask the international community for help on the problem of Somalia and raised enough money to give food to 300 families every month. What is more, with the help of 32 non-governmental organizations (NGOs), the OIC managed to send doctors .and nurses to treat patients to the biggest hospital in Mogadishu, Somalia
