

This file has been downloaded from the Almanahj website

The file: English grammar test

Almanahj Website ⇒ American curriculum ⇒ 3rd Grade ⇒ English ⇒ Term 1

More files for: 3rd Grade subject English - Term 1

Worksheet about writing skills review	1
Worksheet about Writing skills	2
Worksheet about Past tenses	3
the secret of the old clock	4
the Big Friendly Giant	5
the little prince	6
Let's go WorkBook 3rd edition	7

Social Media links for 3rd Grade

English exercise book

Unit 17: Imperative Sentence

An Imperative Sentence is a sentence that asks someone to do something. In Chinese, it is a “祈使句”.

There are two types.

- Positive
- Negative

Example:

- a) Do stand up.
b) Don't write on this paper.

*You can ignore it.

Type (format)

Notice the format is like

Verb + noun

Example:

Go upstairs.

Go is the verb, while upstairs is the noun.

Exercise 1: Imperative Sentence

Write imperative sentences using the verb given.

1. walk

2. read

3. bring

Using the concept of making imperative sentences, write 5 sentences.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

Exercise 3: Imperative Sentence

Convert the underlined word into negative form. Then rewrite the sentences.

Please do read this theory book.

Do do this assignment.

Exercise 4: Imperative Sentence

Convert the underlined word into positive form. Then rewrite the sentences.

Do not touch these things.

Can you don't give me this type of coffee?
